

Drama Ministry

This ministry provides individuals an opportunity to express yourself in short sketches that many times deal with real-live experiences. Although most sketches are of a secular nature, when performed in connection with a biblically-based message on how to live more balances lives, they also take on a spiritual significance.